A FIGHT WITH GALA DAY AT THE

Attacks Officer With Two Knives Twenty Thousand People Pack And Is Terribly Beaten. ' ,!

cide by Jumping From Steamer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., October 5 .- William Lee, a crazy negro, arrested last night at Ocean View by County Constable John Hays, is quiet this morning after a stormy night of raving in the Norfolk county jall. Lee shows badly, his head being a mass of cuts and wounds, inflicted by the officer's blackinck in the struggle in which the two men engaged, Lee being armed with two butcher knives with which he sought the officer's life. with which he sought the officer's life. Dr. Morgan, the jail physician, in dressing the man's wounds, found a fractured skull and cuts that required fifty stitches of the needle to close. After a resting spell at the jail, Lee will be examined by a commission of lunacy, and be returned to the colored insane asylum at Petersburg, from which he

ITALIAN SHIP FLOATED. The Italian steamship, the Citta di Palermo, was floated to-day at noon, and Palerno, was floated to-day at noon, and she will be brought here for survey and repairs. She went ashore near Cape Hatteras night before last because the captain was confused as to the lights on the shore and of the lightship of the Diamonds Shoals. She was bound from several cities in Italy for New Crieans, shore and of the lightship of the Dinmonds Shoals. She was bound from several cities in lialy for New Crieans, with maccaroni and wines, and came by here for bunker coal. After taking the coal she encountered murkey weather outside and went ashore. She was righted, and pulled off by the tugs Rescue, of the Merritt && Chapman Wrecking Company, of this station, and the Edward Luckenbach, of New York. All the members of her crew, thirty in number, had been rescued by the lifesayers from the Hatteras and the Breeds Hill stations on the North Carolina coast.

JUMPED OVERBOARD.

Thomas H, Long, a merchant of Chapel Hill, N. C., a guest at the Hotel Neddo, this city, believes that his younger brother, N. C.| Long, committed suicide Monday night by jumping from the Old Bay Line steamer Georgia, while coming from Baltimore to Norfolk. Upon the arrival of the steamer Georgia at her Norfolk pier Tuesday morning the chambermaid found on the floor of room No. 61 on the Georgia, two notes from Mr. Long, one addressed to another brother. Both notes indicated suicide, and are now in the possession of T. H. Long, who says that his brother brother. Both notes indicated suicide, and are now in the possession of T. H. Long, who says that his brother brother. Both notes indicated suicide, and are now in the possession of T. H. Long, who says that his brother brother. Both notes indicated suicide, and are now in the possession of T. H. Long, who says that his brother brother. Both notes indicated suicide, and are now in the possession of T. H. Long, who says that his brother horders of age. He was five feet ten inches to the feet to more meritage of a semilar of the section. The results of the races follow:

2122 pace—purse, $40—Fleety J., b. 1, 1; Black Cat, bl. m., 2, 2, 3; Dearond, brother brothers—W. V. Long, a lumber meritage of the section of the sec this city, believes that his younger brother, N. C. Long, committed suicide Monday night by jumping from the Old Bay Line steamer Georgia, while coming from Baltimore to Norfolk. Upon the arrival of the steamer Georgia at her Norfolk pier Tuesday morning the chambermaid found on the floor of room No. 61 on the Georgia, two notes from Mr. Long, one addressed to his brother, Thomas H. Long, at the Hotel Neddo, and the other addressed to another brother. Both notes indicated suicide, and are now in the possession of T. H. Long, who says that his brother had for some time been despondent as the result of poor health, and financial troubles brought on by losses, some of which were by speculating in Norfolk "bucket shops." Long was twenty-nine years of age. He was five feet ten inches tail, weighed 120 pounds and had blue eyes and dark hair. He has four brothers—W. V. Long, a lumber merchant at Saratoga, Mias; G. P. Long, lumber-merchant at Gamesville, Fla.; A. N. Long, professor of English at Prince to University. and T. H. Long, a mer-N. Long, professor of English at Prince-ton University, and T. H. Long, a mer-chandise broker of Chapel Hill, N. C.

HEREFORD BREEDERS.

Enthusiastic Meeting and Officers Elected.

CETS Elected.

(Special to The Times-Dispaton.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., October 5.—The second annual meeting of the Virginia Hereford Breeders' Association was held this evening at the Hotel Curroll, in this city. Members of the association from all parts of the State were present, and the session was an enthusiastic one.

ent, and the session was an enthusiastic one.

The officers for the year are; Murray Boecock, of Keswick, president; Haynes L. Morgan, of Saltville, vice-president; Edward G. Butler, of Berryville, secretary, and H. B. Howe, of Dublia; J. D. Stubbs, of Sassafras; A. Meschendorf, of Forest Depot; E. R. Phills, of Beldle Creek, and E. L. Eakle, of Crimora, together with the officers, constitute the Board of Directors,

A number of new members were elect-A number of new members were elect-

SELF DEFENSE

Dr. Smith Declares Lewis Was About to Draw His Revolver.

About to Draw His Kevolver.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BRISTOL, TENN., October 5.—Dr. S.

N. Smith, who killed his former friend and neighbor, J. E. Lewis, in Colorado, three days ago, immediately after the two had gone to that State from upper East Tennessee, declines to discuss the tragedy further than to say he shot Lewis in self-decease while the latter was prevaring to draw a revolver. paring to draw a revolver.

Smith has been bailed in the sum of $5,000.

WILD MANIACI LYNCHBURG FAIR

the ' Race Course.

STRANDED SHIP IS FLOATED PLAN FOR A SPLENDID HOTEL

Believes Brother Committed Sui- Street Car Lines in Good Shape and Handle the Crowd.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., October 4 .-- More than 20,000 people growded the grounds of the Interstate Fair Association from carly in the forenoon until late this afternoon. The weather was perfect, and an especially attractive ruce programme was given during the afternoon. The parade of prizel-winning stock and vaudeville attractions and band concerts made the grounds lively during the forenoon, not to mention The Pike, which did a rushing business throughout the day.

When the races began in the afternoon there was a dense mass of humanity packed half-way around the course, while the graindstand and the lot in from of the afternoon.

The great crowd was unusually enthusiastic over the races, all of which were holly contested throughout, and each heat or dash was loudly cheered, until the grounds resounded with good cheer. early in the forenoon until late this after-

It was evident after the arrival of the orrly trains that an immense crowd would be here. Later trains augmented, the number and thousands came by private conveyance. The street-cars from 9 o'clock until after 3 poured the people into the grounds at the rate of two thou-sand an hour, and it was late this after-noon before all could be brought back cord, 2:191-2.

2:25 trot—purse, $300—Genteel, h. bs., 1, 1; Black Cat, bl. m., 2, 2, 3; Dearolean, b. s., 3, 3, 2. Best time, 2:221-4. Running—five-eighth mile, two in three—purse, $150—Cabin Boy, b. g., 1, 1; 5; Ivan Bell, b. g., 2, 2; Don Liggan, b. g., 3, 3. Best time, 1:041-2.

Hurdle race—one and a half miles over hurdle—purse, $200—Lida Woodlands, c. h. m., 1; Cool Gardle, b. g., 2; Niota, b. m., 3. Time, 3:19.

Special novelty race—three-fourths mile dash—purse, $100—for horse reaching quarter first, $50; half, $60; three-quarters, $50 All won by Callendula, b. m. Time, 1:18.

HIGGINS OPPOSES

Altercation on the Streets of Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., October 5.—Colonel A.
M. Higgins, of the Soventy-firstRegiment, here, declares that he is not a candidate for Brigadled-General of the Virginia troops and that he is opposed to the reorganization plan.

Postmaster H. S. Butt, of Portsmouth, and the discharged money order clerk. W. E. Jenkins, had a fight in the street there to-day, as the result of slander, which, it is alleged, Jenkins had circulated. They were separated before any serious damage was done. Mrs. Grace Page and Albert Oher, both of New York, arrived in Portsmouth to-day, and were married there and returned to New York to-night. The brido is pretty and stylish, but she and the groom are not known there.

Municipal Officers.

Municipal Officers,

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BUFFOLK, VA., October 5.—Judge Joseph B. Prince has resigned as Mayor of Cortland, Va., and R. L. Whilfield, resigned as police chief of the same town. They will be succeeded, respectively, by William J. Sebrell and J. W. Edwards, who were elected by the Council

Shipstuff and Brown- $1.00 stuff, per hundred...... $1.00

Main Street,

Rothert's

Have You seen the Splending Stock of

Carpets and Rugs

at Rothert's? You can certainly be suited here-

Cook Stoves and Ranges

Magic, Patapsco, Fitz Lee,

First-class cooks and bakers.

Home of the "Comet" Self-feeder

There is no Heater in this market that is "just as good." They are in every neighborhood. Ask about the Comet.

the area of the designation of the first and the second of the second of the second of the second of the second

Rothert's,

Fourth and Broad Streets.

CORNER-STONE LAID OF A FOOTBALL PLAYER NEW MASONIC HALL

Large Sum Raised in Few Minutes to Pay for Building.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WARSAW, VA., October 5 .- The corner stone of Lancaster Union Lodge, No. 88, A. F. and A. M., was laid to-day at Kilmarnock, Va., with appropriate Masonic ceremonies. The building, which had been completed several weeks ago and only needed the laying of the cornerstone, is by far the handsomest Masonic Temple in Tidewater Virginia, outside of a city, costing nearly three thousand dol-a city, costing nearly three thousand and lars.

The building is forty feet square, and modern in every particular. The address of the day was delivered by Grand Master Thomas M. Davis, of Lynchburg. Short addresses were also made by Captain Josephus Trader, of Matthews; Mr. Frank B. Newbill, of Irvington; Captain George P. Squires, of Ocrans, and Mr. Marchant, of Matthews.

The attendance was large, fully one hundred Masons being present. Sixteen hundred and thirty-five dollars was raised in twenty-three minutes time, and the handsome hall, which is a credit to the Masonic fraternity, was dedicated free of debt.

the Masonic fraternity, was dedicated free of debt.

The officers of this flourishing lodge are J. B. Cralle, master; J. W. Haydon, senior warden; T. O. Smithers, junior warden; Rev. Fred W. Claybrook, secretary; R. W. Chilton, treasurer; H. H. Camps, senior deacon; Myer Swatzman, junior deacon and J. 15. Walters, tiler.

HISTORY OF MERCER.

Steamers to Norfolk Will Be Discontinued.

Continued.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 5.—
Judge John. T. Goolrick, of this city, is engaged in writing a history of General Hugh Mercer, the illustrious Revolutionary general, to whose memory a beautiful raonument is being built for this city by the United States government, which is no wnearing completion and will be unveiled here early next month. The book will be a souvenir volume, and it is contemplated to have I tready for delivering by the time the monument is dedicated. The book will be artistically gotten up and richly illustrated, with pictures of General Mercek, of the monument to his memory, his home in Fredericksburg, the homes here of some of his descendants, etc.

The Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Pallway Company, whose steamers ply 18.4 Rappahannock River between this city and Battimore, have notified the commercial bodies of Norfolk that the line would have to stop running steamers between that point and points on the Pappahannock River, because the traffic is not sufficient to pay the expense of operating the schedule. The browser the

is not sufficient to pay the expense of operating the schedule. The line does an immense business, however, between this city, points along the Rappahannock and Baltimors. Dodd, formerly of this city, has been elected cashier of the Citzens Bank and Trust Company, of Abingdon, Va., which has recently been organized. He is a son of Mr. A. B. Dodd, of Stafford county.

He is a soil of Mr. A. B. Dodd, of Stafford county.

The celebrated case of Martin's administrators vs. the Richmond. Frederickshurg and Fotomac Railroad, which has been pending in the Circuit Court of Stafford county for several years, will come un again on October 17th.

Mr. A. Loewenson, of this city, has returned to his home here, after spending several months abroad.

The new steamer to be known as Dr. W. J. Newhall will be launched at Urbana, on the lower Rappahannock, on October 18th. and will be immediately taken to Bailtimore to be completed. This steamer white Stone and Urbana, taking in Millenbuck, Irvington and several other points.

MECKLENBURG COUNTY.

Great Increase in Values There Colored Boy Shot.

Colored Boy Shot.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)

BOYDTON VA., October 5.—Eddle, the ten-year-old son of Jack Shelton, a worthy colored man living near this place, was accidentily shot by another how a few days ago. The boys were playing with a pistol, and by some means it was discharged, and the ball fired into the boy's leg.

One of the best indications of thrift in a county is in the increased value of real estate. That is the case in Mecklenburg at the time. There were several tracts of land sold here Tuesday by suction, and they all sold well. I am old that one of the tracts sold brought shout 50 per cent, more than it could have been bought for one year ago.

Two handsome public buildings are being erected it, town, and a large force of vorkmen is engaged in the work. The town appears to be putting on extra energy, and lobused is rolling into the own appears to be putting on extra en-warchouses.

Dr. Willian Townes, of Memphis. Tenu;
F. W. Overbey, Pichard Snead, of North Carolina, and others are in came on Roanoke River and are having a big hunt.
These gentlemen are old fox hunters and have a fui; supply of dogs and are making things lively where they go along.

THE PURE KIND,
"Clover Hill" Butter,
Made by Fox River Butter Company,

MAY BE FATALLY HURT

Young Montgomery's Spine Injured and Paralysis Sets In.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FARMVILLE, VA., October 5.-H. C. Montgomery, a third-year student of Hampden-Sidney College, met with a fearful accident yesterday afternoon while engaged in practicing a game of foot-ball. The team was getting in trim to play the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, next Saturday. Mortgomery in the practice sustained injury to his back and spine, which will probably prove fatal. He is partially paralyzed, and the attending physicians say his back is probably broken.

paralyzed, and the attending physicians say his back is probably broken.

Montgomery is from Montgomery, W. Va., and was one of the most attractive young men at the College. The affair has cast a shadow over the community.

DISCIPLES' MEETING.

Officers of the Christian Mission-

Officers of the Christian Missionary Society.

(Bpeclal to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., October 5.—The meeting of the Disciples of Christ in conference from the State closed to-night with a praise service led by Rev. P. A. Cave, of Richmond, and an address on New Testament Evangelism by Rev. J. J. Haley, of Richmond. There were 181 delegates present at the meeting and the convention was the most successful in the history of the church. The members were entertained by a trip to Cape Henry this morning, accompanied by an syster roast at Lynnhaven Bay, the home of the cyster. Yesterday they took a trip about the harbor in yachts. The committee on nominations reported and the following officers of the Virginia Christian Missionary Society were elected for the ensuing year. President, W. F. Fox, Rlohmond; first vice-president, John S. Ellett, Richmond; second vice-president, P. A. Cave, Richmond; corresponding secretary, E. M. Newman, Richmond; treasurer; T. A. Cary, Richmond; advisory members of State board. Dr. Roland Walker and H. T.

M. Newman, Richmond; treasurer, T. A. Cary, Richmond; additor, F. T. Sutton, Richmond; advisory members of State board, Dr. Roland Walker and H. T. Law, Norfolk; R. M. Kent, Richmond; W. L. Dudley, Oranda; C. H. Walker, Charlottesville; R. E. Elmore, Tazewell; B. C. Shelburne, Milt; W. J. Shelbourne, Rine.

The officers of the Virginia Christian

Rino.

The officers of the Virginia Christian Ministerial Association for ensuing year are: President, Rev. J. T. T. Hundley, of Norfolk; vice-president, Rev. E. B. Komm, of Biacksburg; secretary and treasurer, Rev. B. H. Melton, of Richmond.

THE RADFORD FAIR.

Plans Laid for a Highly Attractive Exhibition.

tive Exhibition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RADFORD, VA., October 5.—Entries for the fifth annual exhibit of the Southwest-Virginia Agricultural and Live Stock Association are coming in fast.

Wednesday's programme include the tournament and two races; also the riding contest for girls under fifteen.

There will be for green hunters, light weight hunters and sheavy horses, and judging sheep and swine at the pens. The floral parade will cace Friday. The judging of Shorthorn cattle at the ring is also scheduled for Friday.

Every day there will be three performances by the Norris', champion high and fancy divers, and will give several concerts daily.

The tournament ball will be danced Wednesday evening at Collilion Club Hall.

The cafe in the Woman's Building will be in charge of the King's Daughters. The public schools will be closed Thursday and Friday, that teachers and public means attend day and Friday, that teachers and pu-pils may attend.

VIRGINIA BRIEFS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 5.—
Congressman W. A. Jones was here today enroute to his home at Warsaw, from his trip to the Philippines.
BRISTOL, VA.—John Fox, Jr., the popular author, whose home is at Big Stone
(ADV. Va.—John Fox, Jr., the popular author, whose home is at Big Stone
(ADV. Va.—left Bisicol to-night for Washington. D. C., where he will join Thomas Nelson Page. The two have planned for an extensive European tour.
NORFOLIK, VA.—Drs. Wood, Wilson and Sleet, who made inquiry into the condition of John H. Clark, the man who has been missing from his home in Berkley, have decided that his mind is unbalanced, but instead of holding a commission of lunacy. Clark is to jo treated 4. home. Clark still thinks his wife is dead, notwithstanding her presence with him.
SUFFOLK, VA.—The fifteen-months-old

SUFFOLK, VA.—The fifteen-months-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Batten, of Chuckatuck. Va., this afternoon was choked to death by a plees of apple.

The child suffocated before the dector's arrival.

Mrs. Robert G. Scott has returned from her summer home, on the coast of Maine, to No. 115 East Franklin Street.

Will Make Meeting a Feature of the Grand Camp's Gathering.

AN ATTRACTIVE SILVER TEA

Petersburg Committee Much Pleased With Their Reception.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., October 6.-Twee ty-cight delegates to the rounion and convention of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, to be held here during the meet ing of the Grand Camp, three weeks from to-day, were elected last evening at a big meeting of A. P. Hill Camp Sons of Confederate Veterans,

The camp has two hundred and seven ty-five members who are showing enthusiastic energy in pushing the prepa rations for the reunion, and are making recruits at a rate that will soon make the local organiation one of the larges if not the largest camp in the South. Reg-ular drills have been started to perfect ular drills have been started to perfect the men in marching in preparation for the big reunion parade, when the camp will have a large number of uniformed members in line.

Excellent progress in reunion prepara-tions was shown by the report of the many committees, among whom the work is divided, and the Veterans and the Sons of Veterans are vying with each other in their Confederate activities.

An attractive and successful silver tea

An attractive and successful silver ter for the benefit of the Petersburg room In the Home for Needy Confederate Wo-men was given by the Petersburg Chap-ter, Daughters of the Confederacy, the afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Barliett Roper. After president, Mrs. Barliett Roper. After the enter-tainment, crosses of honor were conferred by the chapter upon a number of Confederate veterans.

Dr. W. F. Drewry, superintendent of the Central State Hospital, near this city, because the state of the control of the central State Hospital, near this city, the desired to the control of the the Central State Hospital, near this city, handed in his annual report to the special board of directors at a meeting this afternoon. Supply contracts were let for the coming year, and other routine business transacled. The directors present were Colonel L. W. Lane, Jr., of Williamsburg Julius Strauss, of Richmond, and Robert Gilliam, of Petersburg.

The committee of citzens representing the municipal government and Confactorate camps, who yesterday called on President Roosevelt to invite him to attend the reunion, returned last night highly the reunion, returned last night highly pleased with the reception by the President, who expressed great regret that his other engagements in the South at that time would prevent him from visiting Petersburg.

SHAW IN STAUNTON.

An Interested But Not Enthusiastic Audience Hears Him.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) STAUNTON, VA., October 5.—Secretary Leslie M. Shaw and Hon. Campbell Slemp spoke here to-night in Columbian Hall to a crowd which was variously estimated at from seven to nine hundred people. The speakers arrived late in the evening and were escorted to their note by Stonewall Brigade Band, which also played at the big Republican rally. There were on the platform, Mr. Shaw, Mr. Slemp, C. Bascom Slemp and United States Marshall S. Brown Allen. The audience consisted of the flower of the Democracy of this vicinity and well as the representative Republicans and many the representative Republicans and many ladies. The applause was only occasional and seldom uproarious. The audience being interested, but not enthusiastic.

Colonel Allen introduced Congressman Slemp, who went over the issues of the campaign at some length, and in turn introduced the principal speaker, Secretary Shaw.

Mr. Shaw was greeted with quite an ovation and was followed with keen interest. His speech was along pretty terest. His speech was along pretty much the same lines as those he has made at Danville, Roanoke, Richmond and other places. This is the first time either speaker has appeared before a

ELECTRIC LINE SOLD.

Receivers' Certificates Comprise Part of Purchase Money. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWFORT NEWS, VA., October 5.— The railroad line, electric plant and all the property of the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company was sold Railway and Electric Company was sold in Hampton to-day at public auction under a decree of the United States Court at Norfolk. H. A. Doun, of Philadelphia, offered the only bid made, which was $55,000. He represented the bondholders of the company, composed mostly of Philadelphia capitalists. Doan put up a certified check of twonty thousand dollars to guarantee compliance with the decree of the court, and will take over the property as soon as the sale is confirmed by Judge Waddill.

It is said that the purchasers will offer in payment of the purchase price $162,000 of receivers' certificates, issued since the road went into the hands of receivers.

Don't Hesitate Great battles are won by m saystic through the agreement of the ar

Many cases of consumption are the result of carelessuess—
A hard cold often settles on the lungs—They become weak—Disease is a coward—It always attacks the weakest part.—Avoid a cold and the some times consequent result—Co sumption—A single dose of

Hamlins Wizard Oil

taken internally, the moment you feel it coming, on will ward off a hard stubborn cold— oil a hard stubborn cold

If you have waited too long and the cold becomes settled on the lungs, Wizard Oil applied externally to the chest, according to directions, will break it up in a night—Get a bottle
now of the genuine Wizard Oil

HAMLINS—
Price, 50e, and 51 co.

Price, 50c. and $1.00.

OR BALE AND REDOMMENDED BY ALL DRUGGISTS

TOP COAT to your liking need not cost a great deal. Try on some of Kirschbaum Make and you'll find you can save enough to help pay for your Tan, olive, brown Coverts; richly lined and tailored.

Kirschbaum Suit.

Ask for Kirschbaum Clothes (Warranted). Good stores everywhere, $12 to $25. (Look for label) A. B. Kirschbaum & Co.

(Makers) Philadelphia and New York

TWO MARRIAGES IN ROCKBRIDGE COUNTY

Miss Berry Weds Mr. S. T. S.nith and Miss Miller Marries Mr. H. R. Martin.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LEXINGTON, VA., October 5,-A quiet home wedding was solemnized to-day at Raphine, Rockbridge county, the contracting parties being Miss Warneta Rebecca Berry, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Berry, and Mr. Samuel T. Smith, of Richmond, Va. The marriage took place at noon at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. J. Olin Knott, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, Lexington, officiated, assisted by Rev. A. H. Hamilton, pastor of Mt. Carmel Presbyterian Church at Steele's Tavern. The parior was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns.

The bride, an attractive young lady, looked lovely in a going-away gown of brown cloth. She carried chrysanthemums. looked lovely in a going-away gown of brown cloth. She carried chrysanthernums. Miss Stephie Roadcap, of Raphine, played the wedding march from Mendelssohn. The groom was attended by Mr. Percy Berry, of Raphine, brother of the bride, as best man, and the groomsmen were Messrs. Walter Wade, of Raphine, and Walter Harris, of Spottswood. The bride was attended by her two sisters as bridesmalds, Misses Bossie and Mabel Berry, both gowned in white organdy. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the Baltimore and Ohlo train for Washington, D. C., to visit friends, after which they will go to Richmond, where they will make their futre home.

Miss Florence Permella Miller, daughter of Mr. J. P. Miller, of Rockbridge county, was married Tuesday evening to Mr. Howard Russell Martin, son of Mr. Anthony Martin, of near Longwood, Rockbridge county. Rev. W. E. Anderson officiated. The attondants were Miss Nettle Miller, sister of the bride, with Mr. Emmet Swartz; Miss Lillian Martin, stater of the Swartz, The bridal couple left Wednesday morning for Covington, where Mr. Martin is employed in the paper mill. They will make their home in that town.

AT THE V. M. I.

Cadets to Visit Richmond Next

Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving Day.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

I.EXINGTON. VA., October 5.—At the recent meeting in Lexington of the Place of Visitors of the Virginia Military Institute, Ieave was granted the corps of cades to visit Richmond Thanksgiving Day, on the occasion of the tootball game between the Virginia Military Institute and the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at Blacksburg.

Upon the recommendation of the superintendent of the V. M. I., General Scott Shipp, the board appropriated $400 to the four charches of Lexington for the header both at church and at the barracks. This allows $100 to each of the preachers.

A United States geological surveying party is in Rockbridge, taking the elexation of the roads and marking the same on rocks, trees and other places.

The Republicans of Lexington and Rockbridge are making great preparation for the preception of Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, who is to speak here next Monday, court day. 15 will be such by a committee and driven through the University and Institute grounds and other points of interest.

Shaw Shown Courtesies. CHARLOOFESVILLES, VA., Oct. 5.-42xSecretary of Treasury Shaw reached Charlottesville the morning from Lynchburg, and after a visit to the University of Virginia, where he was shown around the grounds and buildings bys President Addermaticand in "escort of prior fersors, left for Staunion.

PIANOS

New House Slightly used Pianos

this week,

$135, $150, $165 $185 and $200.

We always have in stock what we adver-

FERGUSSON

BROS.

There Is No

Known Way

MACHINE WORKS Phone 1186, 2404-2406 E. Main Street Solo owners of patent rights here,

USE Richmond Cedar Works STEAM DRIED Kindling Wood

Kindling Wood, per half cord. $1.50 Pine Cord Wood, per half cord. $3.00 Maple Cord Wood, per half cord. $3.00 Half Kindling and half cord wood, per half cord...... $2.25

25c Best Roe Herring, Octagon Soap, per cake 4c Colgate's Palm Soap, Standard brands of Flour, 32c per barrel, $5.00, or sack.... New Mothers' Oats, Sliver Leaf Lard, 3 5 and 110 Butchers' Leaf and pound 110 Kingan's California Hums, 9C Best Full Cream Cheese, 15c Small cans Best Tomatoes, 60 Large cans Good Luck Pow- 8C Largo cans Best Tomatoes, 8c

Best Elgin Butter,

J. S. MOORE'S SONS, Inc.,

See us for Quality and Prices

Phone 507.

Standard American Granulated Sugar, per lb. 5c.